The Carlson Leadership Academy is renowned for teaching the skills and tools necessary to be a successful leader, and our brothers have taken these teachings to heart. The chapter has worked tirelessly to ensure that we are bringing in the best and brightest young men to join our ranks. Through innovative recruitment strategies and a commitment to excellence, Sigma Phi Epsilon AZ Beta has set the standard for recruitment in our region. The Talent Power Award recognizes AZ Beta's dedication to inspiring our brothers to be the best that we can be. The chapter has shown that we understand the importance of having a strong and diverse membership base, and we have worked hard to make this a reality. "We are incredibly proud to have received the Talent Power Award," said our president Jack Marko '25. "Our chapter is committed to excellence in all that we do, and this award is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our members." We were also able to secure Championships in the Indoor and Outdoor Intramural Soccer leagues. The team once again took to the field with a determination to win. They played a remarkable game, showing their skills and teamwork, and ultimately secured more championship titles. As we move forward, we are excited to continue building on our success. We remain committed to excellence and are always looking for new ways to improve. We hope that you will continue to support our chapter and stay connected with us as we continue to make a positive impact in our community. Thank you for your ongoing support of Sigma Phi Epsilon and AZ Beta. We look forward to sharing more exciting news with you in the future.

ΣΦΕ PRESIDENT'S REPORT

My name is Jack Marko '25 and I am the current President of the Sigma Phi Epsilon, Arizona Beta Chapter. I am currently a junior on the accelerated master's program, for Finance. I was born and raised in Overland Park, Kansas and attended high school at Blue Valley High where I was co-president of the investments club, a class ambassador for DECA, and a member of the Track and soccer team for all four years. Here at the University of Arizona

I am an Associate on the Investment Banking Track of the Wall Street Scholars program, which is a high finance selective club, where upperclassman seniors and juniors advise sophomores on how to land investment banking and capital markets internships on Wall Street. Being the President of one of the largest SigEp chapters in the country is extremely special to me. It is an amazing feeling to know that the chapter trusts men, and I take this position and duty with great pride in holding my brothers accountable and ensuring great success for our chapter. I am blessed to have a stand-up Executive Board by my side, and we plan on furthering our three cardinal principles of Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love in our lives, and our members' lives. I joined this fraternity intending to have an impact and build relationships to last a lifetime, and what a better place to do both than Sigma Phi Epsilon. I believe that the experiences I have had in my life will guide and help me in this journey, and will put me in the position to lead this fraternity with joy. I have always viewed myself as a leader and a hard-worker, and both of these characteristics will be on display during my time here. I am incredibly excited to be President of this great chapter, and even more excited to be a SigEp!

UNDERGRADUATE PROFILES

COLE REBMAN '25

Meet Cole Rebman '25, a junior at the Eller College of Management, University of Arizona, expected to graduate in Spring 2025. Cole is currently pursuing a major in Finance and plans to double major in Entrepreneurship when he becomes a senior. His career goals involve working in real estate finance and investments, as he has a family background in this field, and it is something he has grown passionate about in recent years. Cole is a member of the fraternity, which means a lot more to him than just being part of a group of guys. To him, AZ Beta embodies the principles of discipline, hard work, and achieving success in all aspects of life. Being surrounded by individuals with similar goals and mindsets has made brotherly love and success come easily. One of Cole's favorite memories with AZ Beta was a night hike with his sigma class. They were able to come together and create an unforgettable experience. The best part was when they turned off all their flashlights at the top of the mountain and gazed at the stars. Being present with all his brothers and taking in the beauty of the night sky is something he'll never forget. For incoming freshmen, Cole has some valuable advice. Work hard and challenge yourself in every aspect of life. He believes that we only get so much time on this earth, so why not push yourself as hard and as far as you can go. Even if you fail, those are the moments that make you learn and grow more than winning every time. He reminds us that we never fail in life, we only get better. Overall, Cole is an exceptional student and a committed member of AZ Beta. His focus on discipline and hard work, both in and out of the classroom, will undoubtedly help him achieve his goals and inspire others along the way

DANIEL VALVERDE '25

Meet Daniel, a driven and motivated junior in Eller College of Management at the University of Arizona, expected to graduate in 2025. Daniel is pursuing a degree in Management Information Systems and hopes to use his degree to serve his country by commissioning as an officer in the US Army. His long-term goal is to use his degree as a retired veteran. Daniel is an active member of Sigma Phi Epsilon AZ Beta, where he serves as the DEI Chair. He attends monthly meetings with other DEI chairs from various houses to discuss ways to make Greek culture at the university more diverse, equitable, and inclusive. Daniel credits AZ Beta with molding him into the young man he aspires to be, someone he would be proud for his son to look up to. Daniel's favorite memory of Sigma Phi Epsilon AZ Beta was move-in day with his sigma class. As incoming freshmen, they had eagerly anticipated this day for years, and it marked the beginning of a new journey that they would take together. Daniel has some advice for incoming freshmen: trust yourself, your hard work, and your mentality every day. This advice has helped him become a more genuine person over time, and he believes it will attract others to him as well. Overall, Daniel is an exceptional student and a dedicated member of Sigma Phi Epsilon AZ Beta. His leadership in the fraternity and his commitment to serving his country are a testament to his character and his passion for excellence.

UNDERGRADUATE PROFILES AND SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Christopher Reeves Memorial Scholarship

Each year, the Reeves family generously contributes to the scholarship named after their beloved Christopher Reeves. They do this to support one outstanding AZ Beta member's collegiate journey. Christopher Alan Reeves graduated from the University of Arizona as a high-performing member of Sigma Phi Epsilon AZ Beta in 1986. At the University of Arizona, Chris attained a BSBA with a focus on Finance & Real Estate, while also serving as SigEp's philanthropy chairman in the fall of 1982. Chris' tenacity afforded him the opportunity to serve as a self-employed owner and work on corporate boards such as The Boys and Girls Club, United Way of WA, and Special Olympics of WA. As President of the AVC board for Arizona Beta, Chris poured his time and dedication into giving back to the members and chapter house at AZ Beta. Throughout his life, Chris has upheld the traits any virtuous man of SigEp strives to embody by displaying his ever-present Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love. Chris' legacy lives on through the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon."

JohnMichael Filippone '24 ~ Outstanding Leader

"I'm so honored to have been awarded the Chris Reeves scholarship. This chapter's alumni support through all of my ideas and adventures so far have been the confidence behind what I do. I can't think of a place in the world I would rather be and to be honored in this way by people who mean so much to me is the best gift I could ever receive. Thank you so much to the Reeves family, the selection committee, my undergraduate brothers and all of this chapter's alumni. I'm proud to be an az beta and am forever grateful for the support that this place and all of you have given me."

Peter Myerson '25 ~ Rising Leader

"I am humbled and honored to be recognized by my brothers as a rising leader in the chapter. I arrived in Arizona after transferring schools, not knowing anyone. Sigma Phi Epsilon took me in and has connected me to some of my best friends and made Arizona my second home. Since joining, I've been eager to get involved. In everything I do, I strive to leave the house in a better position than when I arrived—to repay those before me who built this house and those with me who've taken me in. Without the constant encouragement from my brothers and the chapter's competitive nature, I would not have been able to earn this award. Everyday I am pushed to be better which I accredit to the standard Sigma Phi Epsilon holds their members to. This award is a reflection of Sigma Phi Epsilon's ambition. Thank you to the committee who decided I was fit for the award and to those who have mentored me and taken me under their wing."

I am constantly amazed at how brothers who are exceedingly busy and may not have talked to one another, or been in contact for years, will drop what they are doing and do everything they can to help out another brother. Truly HFF." His advice for undergraduates is to "know what you have in AZ Beta and do everything you can to build and strengthen that bond. Accept every opportunity as a gift in the present, and maximize that opportunity." One of Kevin's personal favorite memories is "walking through the Red Door for the first time as a pledge class."
